In healthcare at home, whether it is a C-suite executive searching for a partner for a large system, an adult child searching for assistance with a frail parent, a MCO needing ongoing support with their insurers, or a navigator at a hospital, in order to stand out and to be one of the agencies selected, you first must have a reason to be in business that will inspire. That is your why. Learn how your why is vitally important in today's increasingly competitive workforce. Home Care and Hospice 2018: An Update from Washington

While Congress may be busy with reelection efforts, the business of government continues with health care continuing to be in the spotlight. Opioid abuse crisis relief, regulatory burden reforms, and ongoing efforts to repeal Obamacare are on center stage. Still, Washington is increasingly in a regulatory state and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) promise to make 2018 a memorable year with everything from potential payment model reforms in Medicare to Medicaid electronic visit verification requirements to intensified claim oversight to health system innovations. Home care and hospice are definitely on the CMS radar. This program will take you for a Washington tour!

(Level: General) William A. Dombi, President, National Association for Home Care & Hospice, Washington, DC

Luncheon (L1) – 12:00 - 1:30 p.m., 1.0 CNE contact hour

Courageous Leadership: Living a Life of Influence

On November 23, 2013, Dan Meers came within inches of losing his life while practicing a bungee jump and zip line stunt at Arrowhead Stadium... home of the Kansas City Chiefs. What Dan anticipated being the thrill of a lifetime ended up being the spill of a lifetime. The stunt went terribly wrong and Dan plummeted 75 feet before crashing into the stadium seats. Miraculously Dan survived. He spent 9 days in the hospital and got some really big scars. Dan smiles when he says, "Scars are just Tattoos that come with a Cool Story". During this powerful presentation

Dan shares his incredible story and the important lessons that he learned during his long road to recovery about leadership and about life. (Level: General) Dan Meers, Mascot, Motivational Speaker, Author and Family Man, Character that Counts, Kansas City, MO

M1 – 2:30 - 4:30 p.m., 2.2 CNE contact hours

Bridging the Gap Between Personnel and Technology

The successful adoption of technology can help an organization achieve its goals of fostering a caring community and it can be an effective tool in personnel recruitment and retention. But, for technology to work for your organization it must be embraced by personnel, both administrative and clinical, and successfully implemented. Often, there are perceived technology gaps that lead to inefficient cost management, poor personnel satisfaction, poor patient satisfaction, and inefficient care delivery. Often, these perceived gaps can be overcome by conducting a thorough assessment of available technologies and the use of such within an organization's work flow and identifying whether true functionality gaps exist or if there are educational gaps within the organization's users that need to be addressed. (Level: Intermediate) Raymond Belles, Jr., Managing Consultant, BKD, Springfield, MO

Wound Care 201: Beyond the Basics – Management of the Client with a Chronic Wound

Building on that knowledge, we will discuss the difference between inflammation and infection; and we will explore evidence-based/best practice strategies for providing holistic, patient-centered wound care. A case-based approach will be used to help the participant apply the concepts in the real-world setting. (Level: Intermediate) Becky Rhone, APRN, Wound Care Nurse Practitioner, Wilson Medical Center, Neodesha, KS

H1 – 1:45 - 4:30 p.m., 3.0 CNE contact hours

The Challenges of Regulations and Conversations Surrounding Hospice

Hospice services continue to evolve presenting agencies with a variety of challenges. One major pitfall is failure to adhere to Medicare standards and regulations, which can result in additional medical reviews, documentation requests and claim denials. This session will provide an overview of hot topics in Hospice such as: Targeted Probe and Educate, PEPPER Reports, FY2019 Final Rule. Details on how to alleviate technical deficiencies and ensure that your documentation will pass a medical review will be given. There also has been a national push for advanced care planning and talking about death sooner rather than later. The conclusion of this presentation will provide guidance on how you can initiate these difficult conversations in the right way, at the right time and how you can educate others. If you have already received your second round of five ADRs, join this presentation to learn how to make improvements going forward. Join PPS Plus's Education Director, Jennifer Warfield, as she explains and defines required documentation, how to receive cooperation from providers, and how to respond to the ADRs for FTF

Tips and Strategies for New HH CoP Compliance

The new home health CoPs started in January, however, many agencies are having a hard time understanding and implementing the standards. In addition, many agencies have been surveyed to the new CoPs and have had mixed reviews—some with very few deficiencies, most with several standard deficiencies, and a few with Condition level deficiencies. This session will assist you in understanding the difficult CoPs and show you what can be implemented in order to be less vulnerable to deficiencies. Deficiencies seen to date will be reviewed along with plans of correction to prevent deficiencies in the future. (Level: Intermediate) Sharon M. Litwin, RN, BSHS, MHA, HCS-D, Senior Managing Partner, 5 Star Consultants, Camdenton, MO

What Home Care and Hospice Providers Should Know About Guardianships and Advance Directives

It is important for health care providers to have a general understanding of legal procedures and estate planning documents that repose authority with respect to health care or financial management in another person or party. In this workshop, we will take a closer look at guardianships and conservatorships, financial powers of attorney, health care powers of attorney, living wills and do not resuscitate directives (DNRs), collectively referred to as advance directives. Of central focus will be how health care providers should act if any such health care authority being exercised by a third party conflicts with the individual's own direction. (Level: General) Tim O'Sullivan, JD, Partner, Foulston Siefkin, LLP, Wichita, KS
